

A decorative border of black swirls and flourishes frames the central text.

A Research booklet for learning about other countries.

Students conduct research and can either use this for a good copy or for taking notes.

<http://secondgradealicious.blogspot.ca/>

My Country

My Country's Flag:

Climate

What is the weather and temperature like in this country?

Draw a Picture of what you think it looks like in this country:

Recreation

Describe the games, sports and things they do for fun in this country:

Draw a picture of what recreation looks like in this country:

Shelter

What do people's homes look like in this country?

Draw a picture of the different types of housing found in this country:

Clothing

What type of clothing do they wear in this country?

Draw a picture of the clothing they wear:

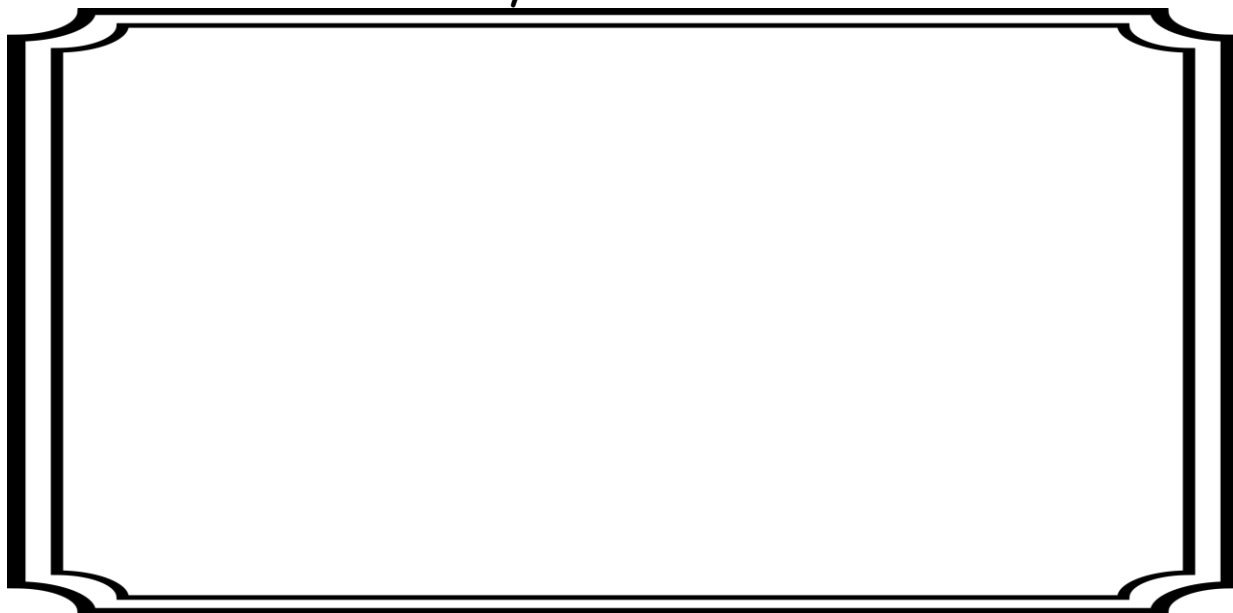

Food

What type of food comes from this country? Are there special meals or treats that they like to eat?

Draw a picture of the different types of food that come from this country:

Transportation

How do people get from place to place in this country?

Draw a picture of the different types of transportation they use in this country:

Comparing Countries

Where is this country located? Northern Hemisphere? Southern Hemisphere? Continent?

Where is the country you live in located?

How does this country compare to where you live?
What is the same and what is different?

A decorative border made of black, swirling, vine-like lines that frames the central text area.

thank you for your purchase!!

this packet is for use in one classroom only.
please do not make copies or email it to your colleagues~
instead send them to the tpt site

<http://www.teacherspayteachers.com/store/secondgradealicious>

visit my blog: <http://secondgradealicious.blogspot.ca>

if you like this product please visit tpt and rate it.